ABOUT FEBT

The Faculty of Economics, Business, and Tourism (FEBT) was established in 1975. Today, with around 2,400 students and 127 employees, FEBT is one of the largest faculties in Croatia and part of the University of Split - Croatia's second-largest higher education institution.

FEBT is located in Split, the second-largest city in the Republic of Croatia and is the largest constituent of the University of Split (UniST).

FEBT employs 127 staff, of which 92 are academic and 35 are administrative positions. At present, slightly over 2,400 students are studying in one of twelve study programmes offered by FEBT at the level of undergraduate and graduate university and professional study programmes and postgraduate specialist and doctoral study programmes.

In 2022, FEBT was awarded the prestigious EFMD (European Foundation for Management Development) accreditation for the study programme in Business, which places the Business study programme of FEBT among the best study programmes in the world!

FEBT was declared the leader in Croatia in support of the development of Start-ups through the Student Business Incubator.

The Student Business Incubator (SBI) has operated at the Faculty of Economics, Business, and Tourism since 2015. It is intended for all University of Split students inclined toward entrepreneurship.

The Faculty offers students the opportunity to complete part of their studies or professional practice abroad at over 60 renowned institutions from more than 20 countries and inclusion in the world of work through international professional training in over 100 companies and associations from the most diverse spheres of activity.

The faculty offers a wide range of courses taught in English for exchange students (on mobility schemes) with plans to provide full-time programs in English in near future.
